The Company also announced today that, as of 12:00 a.m. midnight, New York City time, on September 4, 2009, it elected to extend the expiration date for the Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation until 12:00 a.m. midnight, New York City time, on September 18, 2009. The Company is extending the early consent deadline, the withdrawal deadline and the expiration date of the Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation in order to provide additional time for the Company to continue its ongoing negotiations with the contemplated provider of its proposed new credit, hedge and supply facilities. In addition, as described in the Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by the Company on September 3, 2009, the Company has entered into an amendment and waiver with the lenders under its existing revolving credit facility and existing primary natural gas hedge facility to, among other things, extend the maturity date thereof to September 21, 2009.

The Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation is being made in reliance upon an exemption from registration under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), as well as Regulation S promulgated under the Securities Act. Accordingly, the new notes and the exchange common stock to be issued as consideration in the Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation have not been initially registered under the Securities Act, or under any state securities laws and, unless and until so registered, none of the new notes or the exchange common stock may be offered, sold, exercised or converted except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws.

The Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation is being made only to qualified institutional buyers and accredited investors and certain non-U.S. investors located outside the United States that have executed and delivered an eligibility letter.

Documents relating to the Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation will only be distributed to holders of Notes who complete and return the letter of eligibility confirming that they are within the category of eligible holders for this private offer. Holders are urged to read the Offering Memorandum and Consent Solicitation Statement, as amended, in its entirety for a description of all of the terms of the Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation and the other updates contained therein.
